JIM RHODES
CLERK

Case No. 2013 - 5448

PETITION

COME NOW, Plaintiffs, Justin Smith and Amber Carter (hereinafter "Plaintiffs"), for their claims against Defendants, Allstate Vehicle and Property Insurance Company (hereinafter "Allstate"), and Mark Muse (hereinafter "Muse"), state as follows:

1. Plaintiffs are residents of Moore, located in Cleveland County, Oklahoma.
2. Defendant Allstate is a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois, with its principle place of business in Illinois.
3. Defendant Muse is an insurance agent residing within the State of Oklahoma.
4. Defendant Muse owns and operates an Allstate agency, in Oklahoma County, Oklahoma.
5. Plaintiffs entered into a contract of insurance with Defendant Allstate to provide coverage for their residence, household contents, and vehicles. Plaintiffs' insured property is located in Cleveland County, Oklahoma.
6. Plaintiffs purchased their homeowner's replacement cost policy of insurance through the offices of Allstate agent, Defendant Muse. At the time Plaintiffs purchased their homeowner's policy with Defendant Allstate, Defendant Muse was an agent and/or ostensible agent of Defendant Allstate.

7. Defendant Muse was familiar with Plaintiffs, and had served as their primary insurance agent for their personal, home and auto insurance needs for several years. Defendant Muse advised Plaintiffs of the need to maintain replacement cost insurance on their home.

8. Plaintiffs relied on Defendant Muse's representations and purchased the same. Plaintiffs trusted and believed Defendant Muse had the requisite insurance agent skills and expertise to properly procure the replacement insurance coverage Plaintiffs requested.

9. Thereafter, Defendant Allstate issued the homeowner's replacement cost insurance policy of insurance (Policy No. 985 799 343) to the Plaintiffs.

10. Allstate represented to the Plaintiffs, directly and through its agent, Defendant Muse, that it would conduct itself in accordance with Oklahoma law and would fully and fairly investigate and pay claims. Plaintiffs relied on said representations.

11. On or about the 20th day of May, 2013, Plaintiffs' property, which was insured by the subject homeowner's replacement cost policy of insurance, was heavily damaged as the direct result of a catastrophic tornado which struck Moore, Oklahoma.

12. Consequently, Plaintiffs properly and timely submitted a claim to Defendant Allstate for the property damage resulting from the May 20, 2013, tornado.

13. Defendant Allstate confirmed Plaintiffs' property had in fact sustained direct physical damage as a result of catastrophic tornado which occurred on or about the 20th day of May, 2013, and that said loss was covered under the terms and conditions of Plaintiffs' homeowner's replacement cost policy with Allstate.

14. Subsequently, Defendant Allstate paid portions of Plaintiffs' claim based on the estimate which it prepared.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
BREACH OF CONTRACT

15. Plaintiffs entered into a contract of insurance with Defendant Allstate to provide coverage for their dwelling and personal property. The homeowner's replacement cost policy with Defendant Allstate was in full force and effect at all material times hereto.

16. Plaintiffs provided proper and timely notice to Defendant Allstate of their claims arising from the catastrophic tornado of May 20, 2013.

17. Plaintiffs have in all material ways, complied with the terms and conditions of the policy.

18. Defendant Allstate, however, has breached its contractual obligations under the terms and conditions of the insurance contract with Plaintiffs by failing to pay Plaintiffs all benefits to which they are entitled under the terms and conditions of the policy.

19. As a result of Defendant Allstate's breach of contract and other wrongful conduct, Plaintiffs have sustained financial losses, mental and emotional distress and have been damaged in an amount in excess of Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($75,000.00), exclusive of attorneys' fees, costs and interest.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION BAD FAITH

Plaintiffs adopt and re-plead paragraphs 1 through 19 above, and for their claim against Defendant Allstate further allege as follows:

20. Defendant Allstate owed a duty to Plaintiffs to deal fairly and in good faith.

21. Defendant Allstate breached its duty to deal fairly and in good faith by engaging in the following acts and omissions:

a. failing to pay the full and fair amount for the property damage sustained by Plaintiffs from the May 20, 2013, tornado in accordance with the terms and conditions of their insurance policy;

b. failing to pay all additional coverages due and owing to Plaintiffs under the terms and conditions of their homeowner's replacement cost policy, thereby unfairly and without valid basis, reducing the fair amount of Plaintiffs' claim;

c. purposefully, wrongfully and repeatedly withholding pertinent benefits, coverages and other provisions due Plaintiffs under the terms and conditions of their insurance policy in violation of Unfair Claims Settlement Practices Act, 36 O.S. §§1250.1-1250.16;

d. purposefully, wrongfully and repeatedly failing to communicate all coverages and benefits applicable to Plaintiffs' claim;

e. forcing Plaintiffs to retain counsel to recover insurance benefits to which they were entitled under the terms and conditions of the insurance contract.

f. failing to perform a fair and objective investigation of Plaintiffs' damages; and

g. engaging in outcome oriented investigation and claim handling practices.

22. Defendant Allstate's obligations arise from both the express written terms of the policy and the Oklahoma Insurance Code. Allstate's failure to implement and/or follow Oklahoma's statutory Insurance Code constitutes bad faith.

23. The conduct of Defendant Allstate, as described above, constitutes bad faith and is a material breach of the terms and conditions of the insurance contract between the parties.

24. As a direct result of Defendant Allstate's bad faith, Plaintiffs' claim was unnecessarily delayed, inadequately investigated, and wrongly underpaid. Said actions resulted in additional profits and financial windfall for Defendant Allstate.

25. As a result of Defendant Allstate's conduct, Plaintiffs have sustained financial losses, mental and emotional distress and have been damaged in an amount in excess of Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($75,000.00), exclusive of attorneys' fees, costs and interest.

26. Defendant Allstate's conduct was intentional, willful, malicious and in reckless disregard of the rights of Plaintiffs, and is sufficiently egregious in nature so as to warrant the imposition of punitive damages.

27. Plaintiffs further allege Defendant Allstate enjoyed increased financial benefits and ill gotten gains as a direct result of the wrongful conduct described above herein, which resulted in the injury to Plaintiffs.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
NEGLIGENCE IN THE PROCUREMENT OF INSURANCE

Plaintiffs adopt and re-plead paragraphs 1 through 27 above, and for their additional claims against Defendants Muse and Allstate do hereby and further allege as follows:

28. Defendant Muse was familiar with Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs had hired Defendant Muse as their primary insurance agent for their personal, home and auto insurance needs. In said capacity, Defendant Muse advised Plaintiffs of the need to purchase and maintain the more expensive replacement cost coverage so their home and personal property would be replaced in the event their home was destroyed by a covered loss.

29. Plaintiffs relied on Defendant Muse's representations and annually purchased the suggested coverage paying the higher premiums for the same year in and year out for several years.

30. Defendant Muse procured the subject homeowner's replacement cost policy, providing for replacement cost coverage for Plaintiffs. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant Muse was an agent and/or ostensible agent of Defendant Allstate.

31. Defendant Muse owed Plaintiffs a duty to act in good faith and to exercise reasonable care, skill and diligence in the procurement of insurance for the Plaintiffs.

32. Defendant Muse had a duty to accurately inform Plaintiffs of all coverages, benefits, limitations, risks and exclusions in the coverage procured.

33. Defendant Muse breached his duty owed to Plaintiffs and is liable to Plaintiffs because through the fault of Defendant Muse, the insurance requested by Plaintiffs was not procured as promised and Plaintiffs suffered a loss.

34. Defendant Muse breached his duty owed to Plaintiffs by:

- a. Representing to Plaintiffs that the replacement cost policy they were being sold would serve to replace their home and personal property without any deduction for depreciation knowing such a statement was untrue;
- b. Failing to disclose to Plaintiffs at the time he sold them their policy that the only way they could actually recover the replacement costs benefits was to first use a portion of their own money to replace the property first. And if they could not do so, they would never receive the replacement cost benefits they had paid extra for;
- c. Procuring an insurance policy which did not actually serve to return their home and personal property to its pre-loss condition;
- d. Procuring a policy which did not accurately reflect the replacement cost of Plaintiffs' dwelling;

35. Defendant Muse had a duty to accurately inform Plaintiffs of all coverages, benefits, limitations, risks and exclusions. Defendant Muse breached this duty by failing to inform Plaintiffs of the limitations and risks of the policy he had procured for Plaintiffs.

36. Defendant Muse was negligent and breached his duty owed to Plaintiffs by failing to monitor and review the policy procured for Plaintiffs to ensure it provided appropriate and adequate coverage.

37. Plaintiffs assumed the policy of insurance procured and maintained by Defendant Muse conformed to their agreement with Defendant Muse.

38. Plaintiffs relied on the assurances of Defendant Muse that the insurance provided appropriate and adequate coverage. Defendant Muse knew, or should have known, Plaintiffs relied on him that the insurance procured was as represented, and it was foreseeable that the failure to procure the insurance that was represented could unnecessarily expose Plaintiffs to significant harm, losses, and damages.

39. Defendant Muse is the agent and/or ostensible agent of Defendant Allstate, and Defendant Allstate is vicariously liable for the conduct of Defendant Muse.

40. As a result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiffs have sustained financial losses, mental and emotional distress, and have been damaged in an amount in excess of Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($75,000.00), exclusive of attorneys' fees, costs and interest.

41. The conduct of Defendants was intentional, willful, malicious and in reckless disregard of the rights of the Plaintiffs, and is sufficiently egregious in nature as to warrant the imposition of punitive damages.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
CONSTRUCTIVE FRAUD AND NEGLIGENT MISREPRESENTATION

Plaintiffs adopt and re-plead paragraphs 1 through 41 above, and for their additional claims against Defendants Muse and Allstate do hereby and further allege as follows:

42. Defendant Muse had a duty to exercise reasonable diligence and skill in obtaining and notifying Plaintiffs of the nature and character of the insurance procured. Defendant Muse breached this duty by misrepresenting to Plaintiffs as follows:

- a. Representing to Plaintiffs that the replacement cost policy they were being sold would serve to replace their home and personal property without any deduction for depreciation knowing such a statement was untrue;
- b. Failing to disclose to Plaintiffs at the time he sold them their policy that the only way they could actually recover the replacement costs benefits was to first use a portion of their own money to replace the property first. And if they could not do so, they would never receive the replacement cost benefits they had paid extra for;
- c. The insurance coverage procured was truly one of "replacement";
- d. The amount of coverage procured, and for which premiums were paid, was equal to the estimated replacement cost of Plaintiffs' home;
- e. The amount of coverage procured would provide the coverage necessary for Plaintiffs to replace their dwelling and personal property in the event their home was totally destroyed by a covered event;
- f. In the event Plaintiffs sustained loss from a covered event their dwelling and personal property would be "replaced" as opposed to depreciated.

43. Plaintiffs relied on the above-referenced representations of Defendant Muse in purchasing and renewing their policy of insurance with Allstate.

44. As a result of Defendant Muse's breach of duty, Defendant Muse gained an advantage for himself by misleading Plaintiffs, to their prejudice. Defendant Muse misrepresented the nature of the insurance policy procured for Plaintiffs; Defendant Muse misrepresented the policy as one which would provide appropriate and adequate coverage for Plaintiffs' home and personal property; and Defendant Muse misrepresented the policy as one which would cover to replace Plaintiffs' dwelling and personal property in the event their home was totally destroyed by a covered event.

45. Defendant Muse's misrepresentations constitute constructive fraud.

46. Plaintiffs were induced to accept and purchase the Allstate homeowners replacement cost policy by Defendant Muse's misrepresentations and constructive fraud.

47. Plaintiffs were misled by Defendant Muse's misrepresentations and constructive fraud.

48. Defendant Muse is the agent and/or ostensible agent of Defendant Allstate for purposes of these misrepresentations, and as such is vicariously liable for them.

49. As a result of the Defendants' constructive fraud and misrepresentation, Plaintiffs have sustained financial losses, mental and emotional distress and have been damaged in an amount in excess of Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($75,000.00), exclusive of attorneys' fees, costs and interest. Plaintiffs are further entitled to reformation of the insurance contract to provide coverage consistent with Defendant Muse's misrepresentations.

50. The conduct of Defendants was intentional, willful, malicious and in reckless disregard of the rights of the Plaintiffs, and/or was grossly negligent, and is sufficiently egregious in nature so as to warrant the imposition of punitive damages.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
NEGLIGENCE

Plaintiffs adopt and re-plead paragraphs 1 through 50 above, and for their additional claims against Defendants Muse and Allstate do hereby and further allege as follows:

51. The Defendants owed a duty to Plaintiffs to exercise good faith, reasonable care, skill and expertise to ensure the insurance policy accurately reflect the risks insured.

52. At the time the policy was sold, and at each renewal, Defendants were obligated to utilize reasonable valuation methodology to determine the costs which Defendants considered necessary to cover the replacement cost of Plaintiffs' dwelling. Defendants were then prohibited from writing more insurance than they considered necessary to cover the replacement cost of Plaintiffs' dwelling as determined at the time the subject policy was written.

53. Defendants negligently breached their duties to Plaintiffs to exercise good faith, reasonable care, skill and expertise in failing to establish an accurate and consistent methodology for calculating the replacement cost of Plaintiffs' dwelling.

54. Defendants' breach resulted in both inconsistent and inaccurate replacement cost valuations resulting in Plaintiffs having policy limits which did not accurately reflect the risks insured.

55. The conduct and inconsistencies referenced herein also violate Defendant State Farms duties of good faith dealing implicit in the contract of insurance with Plaintiffs.

56. Defendant Allstate's duties and obligations arise from both the express written terms of the policy and the Oklahoma Insurance Code. Defendant Allstate's negligence in failing to implement and/or follow Oklahoma's statutory Insurance Code also constitutes bad faith. Defendant Allstate's conduct referenced herein constitutes both negligence and a breach of this duty of good faith dealing.

57. Defendant Allstate's negligent failure to utilize a consistent methodology to accurately establish and reflect the risks insured, morally and legally requires it be held to a duty of reasonable care, and that the burden of the resulting liability for the breach of this duty be imposed upon Allstate. This duty exists due to the foreseeability of the harm to Plaintiffs which could occur as a result of this negligence in failing to establish a consistent methodology for calculating the replacement cost of Plaintiffs' dwelling; this negligence of inconsistent and inaccurate replacement cost valuations is the direct cause of the harm and injury suffered by Plaintiffs; and the moral blame for the negligent failure issue the correct policy lies with the Defendant Allstate. Further, the burden on the Defendant Allstate of imposing a duty to exercise care in establishing a consistent and accurate methodology for replacement cost valuations for the needs of the insured (with resulting liability for breach) is minimal, given the expertise of Defendant Allstate, and its representations that it is an expert in the field of providing insurance coverage to the general public, such as Plaintiffs.

58. Plaintiffs relied both on the representations of Defendant Muse and the notoriety of Defendant Allstate Farm that they utilized a consistent and accurate methodology for replacement cost valuations to ensure the insurance policy provided the coverage that was promised to them by Defendants.

59. The Defendants negligently breached their duty owed to Plaintiffs by failing to utilize and implement a consistent and accurate methodology for replacement cost valuations which resulted in issuing and/or renewing a policy of insurance to/for Plaintiffs that was not commensurate with the risks for which the policy issued and renewed. Defendant Muse was an agent, employee and/or ostensible agent of Defendant Allstate, and Defendant Allstate is vicariously liable for Defendant Muse's negligent breach of duty.

60. As a result of the Defendants' negligent conduct, Plaintiffs have sustained financial losses, mental and emotional distress and have been damaged in an amount in excess of Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($75,000.00), exclusive of attorneys' fees, costs and interest.

61. The conduct of Defendants was intentional, willful, malicious and in reckless disregard of the rights of the Plaintiffs, and/or was grossly negligent, and is sufficiently egregious in nature so as to warrant the imposition of punitive damages.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

Plaintiffs adopt and re-plead paragraphs 1 through 61 above, and for their additional claims against Defendants Muse and Allstate further allege as follows:

62. A special relationship akin to that of a fiduciary duty exists between the Defendants and Plaintiffs stemming from the quasi-public nature of insurance, the unequal bargaining power between the Defendants and Plaintiffs, and the potential for Defendants to unscrupulously exert that power at a time when Plaintiffs are most vulnerable. As a result of this special relationship, the Defendants owed a fiduciary duty to their insured to act in a manner consistent with the interests of its insured.

63. A fiduciary relationship existed between Plaintiffs and Defendant Muse. The overmastering influence of Defendant Muse over Plaintiffs, and Plaintiffs' dependency and trust in their insurance agent, Defendant Muse, which was justifiable given the pre-existing relationship between them, and Defendant Muse's assurance the insurance policy would make the Plaintiffs whole after a loss, creates a fiduciary status with respect to Defendant Muse as it relates to Plaintiffs. Defendant Muse's duty to act reasonably given the specialized knowledge he possessed of the terms and conditions of insurance policies created such a special relationship as to make Defendant Muse a fiduciary.

64. The Defendants breached their fiduciary duties owed to the Plaintiffs.

65. As a result of the Defendants' breach of fiduciary duties, Plaintiffs have sustained financial losses, mental and emotional distress and have been damaged in an amount in excess of Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars ($75,000.00), exclusive of attorneys' fees, costs and interest.

66. The conduct of Defendants was intentional, willful, malicious and in reckless disregard of the rights of the Plaintiffs, and is sufficiently egregious in nature so as to warrant the imposition of punitive damages.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, premises considered, Plaintiffs pray for judgment in their favor and against Defendants, Allstate Vehicle and Property Insurance Company and Mark Muse, for:

- a) Payment for all contractual benefits for all coverages afforded to Plaintiffs under the subject Allstate policy for damage to their property caused by the May 20, 2013, tornado, with interest on all amounts due;
- b) Compensatory damages for intentional infliction of emotional distress and mental pain and suffering;
- c) Disgorgement of the increased financial benefits derived by any and/or all of the Defendants as a direct result of the Defendants' wrongful conduct;
- d) Actual and punitive damages each in an amount in excess of $75,000.00; and,
- e) Prejudgment interests, costs and attorneys' fees.
